WASSO's Holiday Tours and Traditions

Nezhad Home
Dr. Kayvon and Sangita Nezhad
2775 Kilkenny Drive

The Nezhads designed their home which is nestled in the heart of Sean's Woods. Featured in My Home Magazine this past summer, 2008, the house offers 10,000 square feet of living space for their family and exudes a blend of Persian and Indian cultures in all the living areas. The home is inspired by an open lay-out and modest colors that stress the "clean look" and feature the furniture.

Summers Home
Mrs. John Summers
2915 Burrwood

This Southern-style home features a natural forest background. As you tour the home, you will notice how the greens of the forest have been brought into the home to compliment its setting. Also, a special feature in the Summer's home is the dining room chandelier which was discovered in a warehouse in Czechoslovakia and shipped with no accidental breakage to Ohio by the Summers..

Wittenberg President's Home
Dr. Mark and Lin Erickson
644 North Wittenberg Avenue

The Benjamin Prince House, the home of Wittenberg President Mark Erickson and his wife Lin, is a landmark in the Springfield area. For the tour, this home will be decorated in a traditional holiday fashion, assisted by Schneider's Florist, and the dining room table, set for Christmas dinner with Mrs. Erickson's personal heirlooms, will be a featured special.

Bayley Alumni House
Wittenberg University
134 West Ward Street

Wittenberg has opened its Bayley Alumni House to the WASSO tour as a special holiday location. This is a must-see stop as it will feature displays of various holiday traditions celebrated in our community as well as give guests the opportunity to purchase a ticket on a framed David Catrow Christmas print. Visitors are also invited to join members of WASSO for refreshments during this visit.

Dhingra Home
Sunny and Dr. Seema Dhingra
2760 Kilkenny Drive

The Dhingras and their two sons are pleased to welcome visitors to their home which combines their Indian heritage and their American life-style. While strolling through their home, be sure to leave enough time to enjoy (and possibly to purchase) lovely holiday arrangements by Netts Florist displayed in their dining room.

Kaech Home
Noel and Beverly Kaech
2866 North Limestone

This lovely house is one of the oldest in the county, built in 1820. While maintaining the history of the home, the Kaechs have been working on renovations since 2005. Join them for an old-fashioned holiday as you walk through their home and enjoy live, traditional holiday music as well as the decorations of Bill's Enchanted Flowers of Urbana.
