

Masterworks

March 19, 2005 8 PM
Larry Coressel, narrator

Larry Coressel, Springfield native and WDPR on-air morning personality, will join Maestro Wilson as the SSO pays a musical tribute to the great Bard, William Shakespeare. Coressel will narrate from the Bard's classics set to Mendelssohn's A Midsummer Night's Dream, an exciting conclusion to the Springfield Arts Council and Springfield Symphony Orchestra's Shakespeare in Springfield Festival.

Otto Nicolai

Overture to The Merry Wives of Windsor

William Walton

Hamlet and Ophelia

P. Tchaikovsky

Romeo and Juliet Fantasy Overture

Felix Mendelssohn

A Midsummer Night's Dream

Larry Coressel, narrator

Wittenberg Singers; Andrea

Chenoweth and Adele Karam, soloists

Performance Preview by Professor Trudy Faber at 7:15 in the Turner Studio Theatre

Section 1: $32; Section 2: $27;

Section 3: $24 Adult/$11 Student; Boxes: $40

Order Tickets Today!

937.328.3874 or at

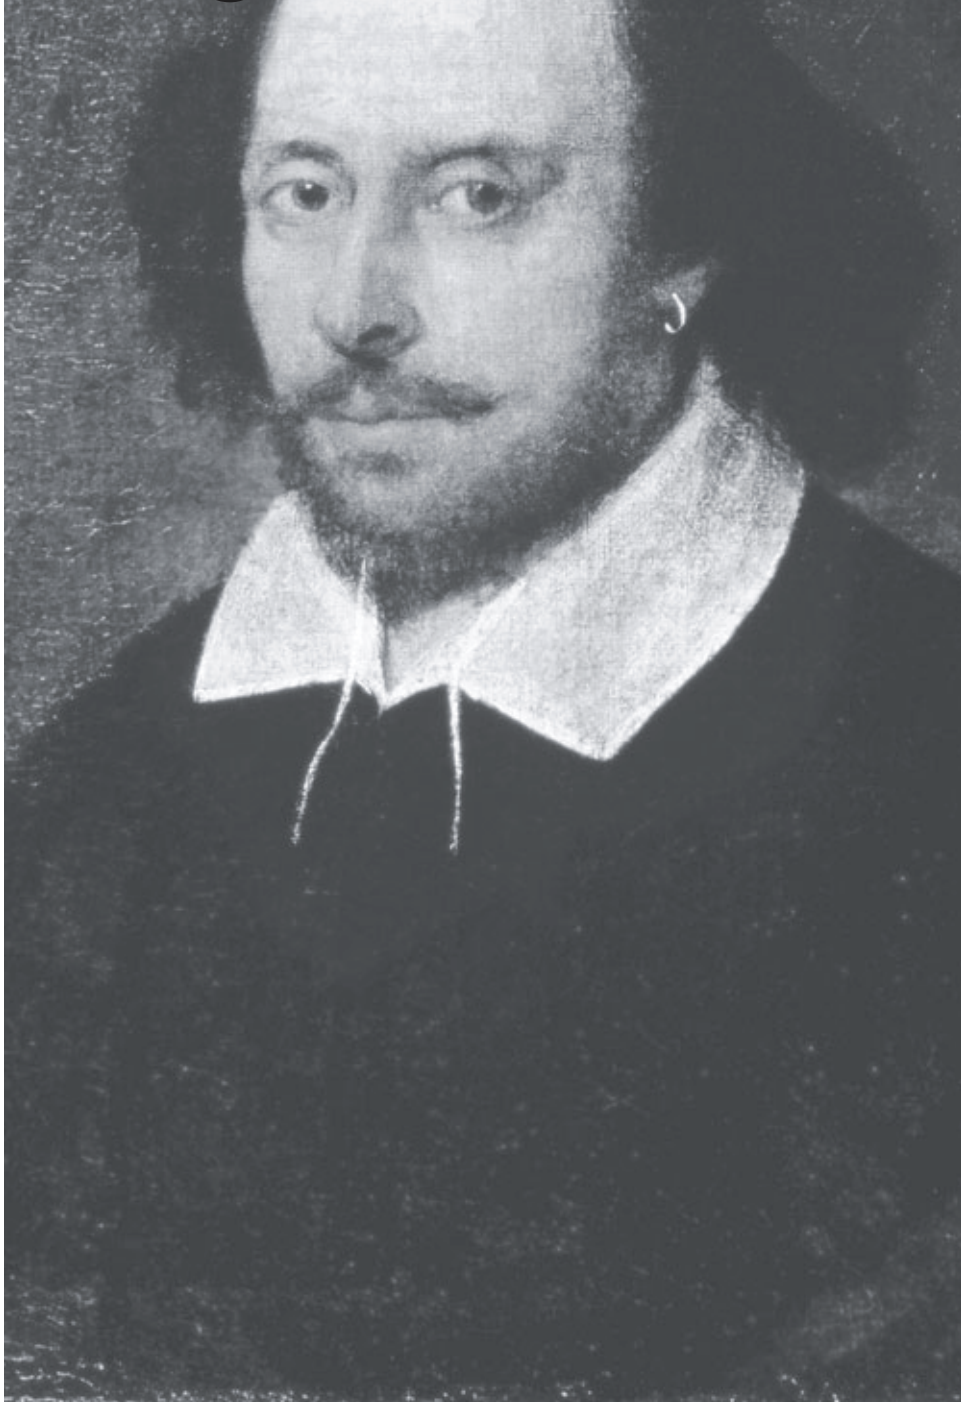

www.springfieldsym.org

At the Clark State Performing Arts Center

SPRINGFIELD SYMPHONY
ORCHESTRA

A Midsummer Night's Dream

Shakespeare in Springfield Festival

presented by The Springfield Symphony Orchestra, Springfield Arts Council, and Chakeres Theatres