For more than 60 years...

...the Springfield Symphony Orchestra (SSO) Youth Orchestra program has provided a quality educational experience for young musicians. The Springfield Youth Symphony (SYS) provides ensemble and solo performance opportunities in a full orchestra setting through concerts and outreach activities.

The Youth String Ensemble (SYSE) and Youth Chamber Orchestra (SYCO) serve beginning and intermediate string players in a group performance experience that introduces members to string literature with a focus on ensemble skills.

Rehearsals for all three orchestras are held on Monday evenings in the educational setting of the John Legend Theater.

There is no cost to audition, but there is a non-refundable annual tuition fee of only $275, payable upon acceptance. Some need-based scholarships are available.

Students are required to participate in their school ensemble programs, if available.

Home-schooled students are encouraged to become part of this educational experience.

With more than 100 young musicians from 39 different schools and nine counties...

We have a place for you!

Highlights of the Season:

- Two major concerts.
- Sectional coaching by members of the SSO.
- A Concerto Competition for SYS seniors.
- Master class opportunities with SSO guest artists.
- Collaborative opportunities to enhance each student's participation in the arts. Past seasons have included exciting collaborations with the National Trail Parks and Recreation District, The Gary Geis Dance Company, Wittenberg University, Project Jericho, and the Clark State Community College Theater Program.

Project Protégé

Project Protégé is a program that offers outstanding SYS musicians the opportunity to perform with the Springfield Symphony Orchestra on select concerts throughout the SSO season. This program gives SYS members the opportunity to perform in a professional environment with mentoring and guidance from the musicians of the SSO. The SSO is one of the few orchestras in the country that offers its youth orchestra musicians an opportunity like this.

Live Wire

Live Wire is a chamber music society featuring Brass and Woodwind Quintets, String Quartets, and Percussion Ensemble. This unique performing opportunity for Youth Orchestra members encourages artistic excellence and personal achievement through the vehicle of chamber music.
